

38th World Congress of International Society of Hematology

September 13-16, 2020, Bangkok, Thailand

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, I would like to invite all of you to attend the 38th World Congress of the International Society of Hematology (ISH 2020) which will be held during September 13-16, 2020 at Centara Grand and Bangkok Convention Centre at CentralWorld, Bangkok, Thailand.

ISH 2020 is intended for hematologists/oncologists, scientists, nurses, medical technologists and other healthcare providers who are involved and/or interested in basic and clinical hematology to meet internationally renowned hematology experts and learn how the researches can translate in to improve patient management and care. The scientific forums will include educational program, plenary sessions, congress symposia, peer-reviewed abstracts and poster session as well as the corporate symposia. It will not only give all the participants a chance to share the latest experience and knowledge, but also provide the unique opportunities to make further collaborations among physicians and scientists working in this field.

Thailand has great deals to offer the visitors, including historic culture, exotic islands, world famous cuisine and vibrant nightlife. In addition to many things to see and do in Thailand, we are sure that you will enjoy the warm hospitality of Thai people.

We look forward to welcoming you in Bangkok in 2020 and we promise that the 38th World Congress of the International Society of Hematology will be an unforgettable scientific and social experiences.

Yours sincerely,

Wichai Parayoonwiwat, MD.
President, ISH 2020
